The U.S. Office of Civil Rights requires schools to identify possible English Learner (EL) students during enrollment to ensure appropriate high-quality instruction. The district may be eligible for additional funding for English learners and/or immigrant children and youth. If a language other than English is used by you or your child and your child meets the English Learner (EL) definition, the school may give your child an English Language Proficiency Assessment. The school will share the results of the assessment with you.

What language(s) did your child learn when he/she first began to talk? _____

What language(s) does your child speak/use? _____

Heritage language _____

Native American or Alaska Native student:

2. Would your child be considered a Native American or an Alaska Native student?

Yes                      No

Native American and Alaska Native students are mentioned specifically in the EL definition and may qualify for EL services.

Do you believe a tribal language has significantly influenced your child's education in English? Yes                      No

If yes, what is the tribal language? _____

Migrant Student:

3. Would your child be considered a migrant student?

Yes                      No

A migrant student has moved in the past 36 months with or to join a parent/guardian who is a migratory agricultural worker.

If yes, what is the date you moved to this area? (mm/dd/yyyy) ____/____/____

Refugee Student: (This information is not a state requirement but may be collected at the discretion of the district.)

4. Would your child be considered a newly arrived refugee student?

Yes                      No

Schools in North Dakota apply for a Refugee School Impact Grant to provide services for newly arrived refugee students. A refugee student left their home country due to a well-founded fear of being persecuted for reasons of race, religion, nationality, membership in a particular social group, or political opinion and has fled to another country to be resettled. Newly arrived is defined as within the last three years.

I declare, under penalty of perjury under North Dakota law, that the information provided here is true and correct.
